

Visitor Facilities

1 April 2010 - 31 March 2011

Visitors are welcome to this beautiful and historic Cathedral where daily worship has continued since 1225AD.

If you wish to book a guided tour and/or refreshments in our Refectory Restaurant or require assistance with planning your group's visit, please ring the Group Visits Co-ordinator on 01722 555124 or email groups@salcath.co.uk.

Details below may change because of services or other arrangements that have to be made at short notice so do check the website (www.salisburycathedral.org.uk) before visiting.

GUIDED TOURS

CATHEDRAL TOURS

Trained volunteer guides offer tours around the floor of the Cathedral and Chapter House (with Magna Carta) free of charge. Please book in advance for groups, non-English languages and any other special requirements. We also offer specialist tours in stained glass, architecture and embroidery plus packages in conjunction with Old Sarum and Wilton House.

Guides are on duty:

Monday - Saturday	9.30am to 4.45pm	April - October
	10.00am to 4.00pm	November - March
Sundays	4.00pm to 6.15pm	April - October
	1.00pm to 3.00pm	November - March
Evenings (Mon-Sat)	5.00pm to 7.15pm	7 June - 28 August

Over the Easter period and during December, Christmas and New Year, special services and events may mean that guiding and access are restricted and that the Cathedral closes earlier than normal. Tours by request when possible.
