Workshops

KS3 and KS4

From building towers to becoming a crime scene detective we have an activity for you!

Choose from our specially designed workshops, which are planned to support the National Curriculum.

“This was a memorable visit to a remarkable cathedral. I would recommend it to other schools without reservation”

The Arnewood School - Y10 Teacher

Magna Carta Workshops

Magna Carta Drama

What is the Magna Carta? Why did Magna Carta happen? Depending on how grumpy he is feeling, pupils may just escape with their lives after an audience with King John himself. Just don't ask him about Magna Carta! All costumes are provided.

Magna Carta; Freedom and Rights

Discussion and art session exploring human rights. Students design and create their own banners reflecting what freedom means to them.

Magna Carta and its Legacy

What are our rights and responsibilities? Pupils are encouraged through drama and discussion to think critically about human rights and responsibilities and the influence of the Magna Carta on our world today.

Magna Carta Discussion Session

What is the Magna Carta? Why was it written? A session led by one of our experienced Education Team taking a deeper look into the history behind the Magna Carta and its legacy today. Also suitable for Sixth Form Students.

Medieval History and Creative Workshops

Clay Gargoyles

What is the meaning and purpose of a gargoyle? After studying the West Front stone carvings pupils create their own clay gargoyle to take back to school.

Medieval Scribes and Manuscripts

How was the Magna Carta written? Become a medieval scribe and experience writing with a quill and a reed pen on parchment-style paper.

Master Builders Challenge

Which building techniques help the tower and spire to stand? Pupils face the challenge of building their own spire using given limited materials. Will their spires withstand the ultimate test of strength?

Medieval Murder Mystery

Can you discover the truth behind this grisly tale? Join the crime scene investigation and interpret different sources of evidence to find out about one of Salisbury's famous medieval figures.
