June Prisoner of Conscience: Tunisia ex-justice minister Noureddine Bhiri faces trial on charges of 'trying to change the form of the government', under Article 72 of the penal code, punishable by the death penalty. He is accused based on a social media post he has denied writing, which was also confirmed by an expert appointed by the accusation chamber. Since his arrest on 13/2/23, he has been held in pre-trial detention in the Mornagula prison. The Tunisian authorities must immediately release him and drop all politically motivated charges against him.

Cathedral Notices

The Treasurer is preaching at St Peter's Pitton this morning.

TODAY: Pride Service Salisbury LGBT Christians are organising an LGBTQIA+ Pride service on Sun 30 June at 5:30 for 6pm at the United Reformed Church, 30 Fisherton Street, SP2 7RG. All are welcome.

The Sudan Fete: Bishop Stephen and Carol threw open their garden for our annual fete in aid of The Salisbury/Sunday Medical Link, several Sundays ago. I am thrilled and delighted to report that our fete total has reached £13,000. This would not be possible without the involvement and generosity of our Cathedral friends and supporters. For all you give and all you do, we do send our sincere thanks. The Sudan Fete Team.

The Vicar of the Close, Canon Nigel Davies, will retire this autumn. His last Sunday at the Cathedral will be Sunday 27 October. We are grateful to Nigel for his valuable ministry among us, and assure him and Jayne of our very best wishes as they prepare for their move northwards.

Organ Prom Voting. This year the Organ Prom (10 August, 19:00) is made up of pieces selected by you, the audience. Select the pieces you'd like to hear at this year's Organ Prom, but make sure you do this before the end of June when voting closes. Visit the Cathedral's 2024 Summer Organ Series webpage, which will take you via links to the voting page and list of pieces (www.salisburycathedral.org.uk/arrangements/organ-prom/). Tickets for the Organ Prom and other concerts in the series are available from the Cathedral Website (www.salisburycathedral.org.uk/arrangements/the-summer-organ-series/). Series dates: 7 Jul – Ben Mills; 20 Jul – Sarah Baldock; 10 Aug – Organ Prom; 7 Sep – Kerry Beaumont; 5 Oct – Jonathan Hope (accompanying the 1925 silent film 'The Phantom of the Opera').

Harnham Water Meadows Trust concert we have the Navy Larks at Rose cottage on 3rd July 7.00 to 8.30 pm. Tickets £15 to include a glass of wine. Please bring own chairs.

Chorister Tutor. We are currently recruiting to the post of Chorister Tutor. Details can be found on the Cathedral website under the heading of "Work with us". Closing date for applications is the 10th July.

Our cathedral choristers are walking the Clarendon Way! We are walking from Salisbury Cathedral to Winchester Cathedral, arriving in Winchester in time to sing in the Southern Cathedrals Festival in July. You can keep up to date with our progress and pictures on the cathedral's social media. We would be extremely grateful for any donations of sponsorship to give some energy to our tired legs! <https://tinyurl.com/choristerwalk> Fundraising for Salisbury Cathedral Choral Foundation. Thank you! .

Past sermons and talks by the clergy are available to view on online- please search for "Salisbury Cathedral sermons" or go to the Cathedral website, click on the "Worship and Music" tab and select "Sermons and Reflections" from the drop down menu.

You are warmly invited to St John Singers' Summer Concert - All you need is Love. On Sat 6th July, at 7.30pm in St Thomas's Church, the choir will sing music by composers ranging from Morley to Bernstein, via Vaughan-Williams, Gjeilo, Britten and Lennon & McCartney; and guest Readers, Lisa Day and Robert Gordon Clark, will present poetry and prose from Shakespeare to Wendy Cope, via Emily Brontë, Jane Austen, Louis de Bernières and Sue Townsend!
