Cathedral Notices

From the Dean: I am delighted that the Revd Maggie Guillebaud will preside at the Eucharist this morning, close to the nineteenth anniversary of her ordination. We congratulate her! Maggie is a skilled teacher, a hospitable neighbour, and a good friend to many of us. Her priesthood is highly valued, and we look forward to its continuation into a third decade (at the very least). However, she has decided to step back from Eucharistic presidency and will in the future concentrate on other aspects of her ministry. We thank her for all that she has given and gives to the common life of Salisbury Cathedral.

The Dean is preaching at Portsmouth Cathedral this morning, for their Patronal Festival.

Cathedral Youth Will you be having a rest from School or awaiting some Exam results? Revd Ross and Trevor are holding three 2-hour sessions for young people interested in finding and developing your public-speaking voice so you can read the Bible and lead prayers in our Cathedral worship. Join us on Monday 29 at 11am, Tuesday 30 at 11am and Wednesday 31 July at 3pm. Find out more by asking Ross or emailing t.branchvolunteering@salcath.co.uk

The Worshippers' Forum will be meeting this week. If you have any concerns or matters which you would like us to discuss and communicate to Chapter please either speak to a member of the Forum or write a note, address it to the Forum and leave in the Vestry. We hope soon to be accessible by email, possibly via the Cathedral website, as well as via an updated notice board.

The Sudan Fete: Bishop Stephen and Carol threw open their garden for our annual fete in aid of The Salisbury/Suday Medical Link, several Sundays ago. I am thrilled and delighted to report that our fete total has reached £13,000. This would not be possible without the involvement and generosity of our Cathedral friends and supporters. For all you give and all you do, we do send our sincere thanks. The Sudan Fete Team.

The Vicar of the Close, Canon Nigel Davies, will retire this autumn. His last Sunday at the Cathedral will be Sunday 27 October. We are grateful to Nigel for his valuable ministry among us, and assure him and Jayne of our very best wishes as they prepare for their move northwards.

We would be extremely grateful for any donations of sponsorship to give some energy to our tired legs! <https://tinyurl.com/choristerwalk> Fundraising for Salisbury Cathedral Choral Foundation.
