August Prisoner of Conscience: On 29 May 2024, Saudi Arabia's Specialized Criminal Court sentenced 47-year-old teacher Asaad bin Nasser al-Ghamdi to 20 years in prison for social media posts criticizing the government's Vision 2030 programme and expressing condolences for the death in prison of a human rights defender. Al-Ghamdi was arrested on 20 Nov 2022. According to trusted sources, he was held in solitary confinement for the first three months of his detention and has been denied access to adequate healthcare, including for his epilepsy. Asaad bin Nasser al-Ghamdi's brother, Mohammad, was arrested five months prior to Asaad's arrest and sentenced to death in July 2023 over his social media posts. The Saudi authorities must immediately and unconditionally release Asaad bin Nasser al-Ghamdi and quash his conviction and sentence.

Cathedral Notices

The Friends of Salisbury Cathedral announced this week that Liisa Wallace has decided to step down as Chair for personal reasons. The Vice Chair, Michael Joseph, has kindly agreed to serve as Chair until the Friends' AGM in September. Michael writes, 'We want to take this opportunity to express our sincere gratitude to Liisa for her dedicated service. As always, we appreciate the continued support and involvement of all Friends; together, we continue to contribute to the enduring legacy of this remarkable place.'

Vicar of the Close. As you will be aware Nigel and Jayne Davies will be leaving the Cathedral on Sunday 27 October. There will be a collection for their leaving gift, details of which will be made public in the next couple of weeks.

Reflective Prayer Mon 2 Sep at 10am in the Trinity Chapel. A time of guided, prayerful silence - an opportunity to be still in the presence of the Lord. Afterwards a time of fellowship in the Refectory, for those who might be 'busy doing nothing'!

Accommodation – can you help? The new Chorister Tutor who joins the Cathedral in the next couple of weeks, is looking to rent accommodation (whether as a lodger or sole tenant) within the Close or immediate vicinity for himself and a dog. He is a mature gentleman whose permanent home is away from Salisbury. If you think you might be able to help, please contact the Chapter Office in the first instance either on 01722 555105 or email: PAtoChapterClerk@salcath.co.uk.

Peace Vigil. Every Saturday in August 5–5.30pm outside Salisbury Library. Calling for a permanent ceasefire in Gaza, Israel and The West Bank Palestinian Territories. Everyone welcome.

Organ Concert Tickets are available for the exciting organ concert on Sat 7 Sep. In the penultimate concert of our much-enjoyed Summer Organ Series, Kerry Beaumont (former Director of Music of St. Davids, Ripon and Coventry Cathedrals) plays a concert including works such as First Flight by Cecilia McDowall and Jonathan Dove's Niagara as well as music by Purcell, Bach and Mozart among others. Tickets are available from the Cathedral website at <https://www.salisburycathedral.org.uk/arrangements/the-summer-organ-series/> and are priced at £15 for adults and £7 for children.

All Creatures Great and Small: A service of blessing for our pets. Everyone is welcome to join our first service for pets on Saturday 14 September at 2pm. Aimed at children and families, this relaxed service will include readings, prayers and music sung by the Cathedral choristers and Junior Choir. It will take place at the west end of the Cathedral, with the large doors open so owners and their animals can gather inside or outside.

Street Pastors – Celebration of 15 years of Salisbury Street Pastoring, St. Thomas', 6pm, 15 Sep.

Our Earth: Ecological Crisis, Art, Theology, and Action. Sarum College and the Cathedral are collaborating on a one-day short course, bringing together the Cathedral's summer art installation with theological engagement of the climate crisis and practical steps that can be taken in our homes, churches and communities. Wed 18 Sep, 10am–4pm. With input from James Woodward, Kenneth Padley, and Susie Snyder, and a tour of Our Earth led by Beth Hughes. Lunch and refreshments included in the course fee. Info & booking: sarum.ac.uk/short-courses/our-earth

Christian Aid screening of film The Tinderbox (2022) at the United Reformed Church on Mon 7 Oct, 7pm. A rare and thought-provoking examination of both sides of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, from its catalyst to why it still rages, to what needs to happen for it to stop. Christian Aid has secured a licence for us to watch this free of charge.

The next 'Be a Chorister for a Day' will be held on Saturday 12 Oct. This is an opportunity for children in Years 2–4 to gain experience of what it's like to be a chorister, culminating in a chance to sing Evensong in the Cathedral. This informal and fun day is ideal for any children who enjoy singing and are natural team players. Parents and guardians are welcome to come and discover what being a chorister parent entails and gather information about financial support available to prospective choristers. For more information and to book a free place, please email musicofficer@salcath.co.uk

A history of Sacred Music by women. Historically music performed in worship in Churches and Cathedrals has largely been written by men. But women have always composed sacred music, and this 3 hour online short course will examine historic female composers revered in their day, from Hildegard of Bingen, to Raffaella Aleotti and Marianna Martines, through to Stanford's pupil Rebecca Clarke and Imogen Holst in more recent centuries. The course is organised by Sarum College and led by Canon Anna Macham, and will be delivered online via zoom on Thurs 17 Oct, 10am–1pm. For more information and booking, see www.sarum.ac.uk/short-courses/sacred-music-women/
