Recently Departed: Ross Webster, Ben Thapa, Dom Bruce Edgar DeWalt

Year's Mind: Arthur Rose (2018), Arthur Watkins (1998), Guy Danes (2022), Sheila Boulter (2022), Nicholas Johnston (1990), Christine Walter (2015), Martyn Snape (2017).

September Prisoner of Conscience: On 29 May 2024, Saudi Arabia's Specialized Criminal Court sentenced 47-year-old teacher Asaad bin Nasser al-Ghamdi to 20 years in prison for social media posts criticizing the government's Vision 2030 programme and expressing condolences for the death in prison of a human rights defender. Al-Ghamdi was arrested on 20 Nov 2022. According to trusted sources, he was held in solitary confinement for the first three months of his detention and has been denied access to adequate healthcare, including for his epilepsy. Asaad bin Nasser al-Ghamdi's brother, Mohammad, was arrested five months prior to Asaad's arrest and sentenced to death in July 2023 over his social media posts. The Saudi authorities must immediately and unconditionally release Asaad bin Nasser al-Ghamdi and quash his conviction and sentence.

Cathedral Notices

Fairtrade Fortnight. It's our annual celebration of all things Fairtrade, raising awareness for the need for fairer trade to support farmers in low-income countries. This year is extra special because we're celebrating 30 years of the Fairtrade movement in the UK. So together, let's be the change to make trade fair. There is a stall after the 10.30 service today.

Past sermons and talks at the Cathedral are available online – please search 'Salisbury Cathedral YouTube' for videos or look under the 'worship' tab of the Cathedral website for written texts.

The Planets – Out of Darkness. As of Thursday afternoon, almost 2,500 people have viewed the new film featuring John Challenger's arrangement of Holst's The Planets, made specially for Salisbury Cathedral organ. Released in the week of the 150th anniversary of Holst's birth, this film showcases the full Planets on our vibrant Father Willis organ, with night-time drone shots of the Cathedral's interior in a unique and highly atmospheric production. The film has attracted viewers from Amesbury to Alaska, via Cologne, Kent and California! If you haven't yet watched online, you can do so on the Cathedral's YouTube page (<https://youtu.be/cb2lD-2JFUE>). The CD can be purchased from the Cathedral Shop (£12.50).

Works in the Quire. Worshippers will notice a couple of changes within the quire over the next few weeks. The carpet under the upper rank of stalls is due for removal. This is because it is threadbare, moth-infested and increasingly a trip hazard. Shortly afterwards, the cushions will be sent away for conservation treatment to purge them of the moth. The cushions are due to return for your ongoing posterior com-fort by early November. Kenneth Padley, Canon Treasurer.

Salisbury Cathedral School has begun its new academic year, and the Chapter are delight-ed to welcome two new colleagues to the Cathedral's and the School's common life. Mrs Sally Moulton is the new Head, and Mr James Clements is the new Chair of the Governing Body. We look forward to a close and collegial working relationship, and wish them, the staff, and the pupils of the School a happy and fulfilling year.

Vicar of the Close. As you will be aware Nigel and Jayne Davies will be leaving the Cathedral on Sunday 27 October. If you would like to donate towards a leaving gift, please place it in a marked envelope and leave it in the Vestry.

Cathedral Book Group Led by Anna Macham and Tim Daykin, the Cathedral Book group meets again on Sunday 29 September from 3 until 4pm in Sarum College and we'll be taking about The Warden and Barchester Towers by Anthony Trollope. Numbers are limited to 25 and places are still available to book via the Cathedral website. Anna is the Precentor of Salisbury Cathedral and Tim is an Honorary Canon and a member of the Cathedral Chapter. See the What's On section of the Cathedral website to book your place: www.salisburycathedral.org.uk

The Very Revd Charles Taylor. A memorial Service for The Very Revd Charles Taylor, who died in February will be held at Peterborough Cathedral on Sunday 29 September at 3.30pm.

Christian Aid screening of film The Tinderbox (2022) at the United Reformed Church on Mon 7 Oct, 7pm. A rare and thought-provoking examination of both sides of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, from its catalyst to why it still rages, to what needs to happen for it to stop. Christian Aid has secured a licence for us to watch this free of charge.

The next 'Be a Chorister for a Day' will be held on Saturday 12 Oct. This is an opportunity for children in Years 2–4 to gain experience of what it's like to be a chorister, culminating in a chance to sing Evensong in the Cathedral. This informal and fun day is ideal for any children who enjoy singing and are natural team players. Parents and guardians are welcome to come and discover what being a chorister parent entails and gather information about financial support available to prospective choristers. For more information and to book a free place, please email musicofficer@salcath.co.uk

A history of Sacred Music by women. Historically music performed in worship in Churches and Cathedrals has largely been written by men. But women have always composed sacred music, and this 3 hour online short course will examine historic female composers revered in their day, from Hildegard of Bingen, to Raffaella Aleotti and Marianna Martines, through to Stanford's pupil Rebecca Clarke and Imogen Holst in more recent centuries. The course is organised by Sarum College and led by Canon Anna Macham, and will be delivered online via zoom on Thurs 17 Oct, 10am–1pm. For more information and booking, see www.sarum.ac.uk/short-courses/sacred-music-women/

An Introduction to the Gospel of Luke | Cathedral | Thursday 14 November | 19:00 | led by Kenneth Padley. The Church year which begins in Advent 2024 will source many Sunday readings from the third gospel. The Christmas shepherds, the Magnificat, the Prodigal Son, the walk to Emmaus – these and more are unique to Luke. Come and find out why he wanted to share them with us. Please reserve your place at this free event (retiring collection) via the 'What's on' tab of the Cathedral website.
