The Sick: Catherine Stewart, Ben Sampson, Jill Brown, Ben, Reuben, Charles Elliott, Sean Hiran, Jacob Collins, David Walters.

Recently Departed: Maddie Davies, Tony Cousins, David Brown, Evelyn, Sharon Hallis, Peter Brown.

Year's Mind: Robert Blackledge (2006), Amelia Allery (1970), Edward (Teddy) Guertitz (2008).

December Prisoner of Conscience: Zhang Zhan is currently detained at the Pudong New District Detention Centre in Shanghai on charges of 'picking quarrels and provoking trouble'. She has been targeted for her continued advocacy for human rights following her release from prison on 13 May 2024. Her family has also faced intimidation and threats from the authorities, while the lawyer her family wished to appoint was held for several hours by police.

Cathedral Notices

Tony Cousins. Tony, a very long-standing member of the cathedral congregation, died on the 11th November. Tony's funeral will be in the Quire at 10.30 on Tuesday. Please hold Pat and the family in your prayers.

Carols by Candlelight. The services this year will be held on Sunday 22 Dec at 5pm and Monday 23 Dec at 7pm. The doors will open each night one hour before the start of the service. No tickets are required for this service, queue numbers will be issued on each night, to ensure fair access to the Cathedral and these will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis. All further details can be found on the Cathedral website.

Former choristers Luke and Emma Lane are the trumpet soloists in the St John Singers's forthcoming Magic of Christmas concert on Tuesday 17th December, 7.30pm, in St Thomas's Church. Conducted by Stephen Abbott, and accompanied by Andrew Post, the choir will perform contemporary and traditional carols, and their nominated charity this year is Wiltshire Air Ambulance. Tickets (£16 to include programme and wine & mince pies) from Kit & Caboodle, High Street, and choir members. NB Limited ticket availability on the door.

Please look out for Amici who will be selling Christmas cards and craft after Sunday morning Eucharists in the coming weeks! They also have an online store where you can purchase cards: amici.sumupstore.com Raising money for the Choral Foundation.

Guild of Stewards. Members of the Guild, with their blue and gold sashes, are a familiar sight in the Cathedral, welcoming the congregation and visitors for services. If you might be interested in joining us and would like to know more about the commitment, which is very flexible, please speak to any of us after a service or contact the Head Steward, Lesley Bryning, lesleybryning@gmail.com.

Candlelight Concer, Friday 17 January 8pm. Internationally renowned tenor Ruairi Bowen and pianist William Vann perform Britten's Winter Words and other English song in the intimate setting of the North Transept by candlelight. The cycle explores themes of memory, transience, and the passage of time, often through vivid imagery of the natural world and human experience. The concert will also include works such as Finzi's setting of metaphysical poet Thomas Traherne's poetry, "Dies Natalis" in a setting for piano and tenor. Tickets £15 for adults and £7.50 for children.

Brighten up your January with an evening of delicious food and music! Amici are organising a Musical Soirée on 31st January, 7:30pm in the Cathedral School. £30 per person to include a three course meal and welcome drink. Musical items provided by the professional musicians among the chorister parent community. Tickets available: amici.sumupstore.com or email amici@salisburycathedralschool.com. Raising money for the Choral Foundation.

Stamps. Please save your stamps (no Scout Stamps, please) and hand in to the vestry or Moira Dickson in aid of Naomi House Hospice. Thank you.

Safeguarding The Cathedral Chapter are committed to the safeguarding and wellbeing of all in the Cathedral Community. The safeguarding lead is the Chapter Clerk (Chief Operating Officer), Jackie Molnar, who can be contacted on j.molnar@salcath.co.uk or 01722 555105. For more safeguarding information, see the Safeguarding page on the Cathedral website (under the "More" tab at the top of the homepage) or the poster on the Community Worshipers' Noticeboard. If you have any concerns about safeguarding, please speak to Jackie or to one of the Cathedral clergy or the two safeguarding congregational representatives, Jill Horsburgh and Sarah Smith, all of whose contact details can be found via the routes above.

Healthy Safeguarding Cultures Survey. The Diocese and Cathedral are undertaking a survey seeking feedback on our safeguarding culture, this comes out of the INEQE audit that took place earlier this year.

Your feedback on our current culture and safeguarding practices within the Cathedral is invaluable. Throughout December we are asking people who work, volunteer and visit the Cathedral to take part in an anonymous survey which should take approximately 5-10 minutes to complete. The purpose of the survey is to understand cultures within the organisation and identify areas of strength and areas for improvement.

Everyone who takes part in the life of the Cathedral is welcome to complete the survey, from tour guides, to Chapter members, congregation members and victims/survivors who have experienced abuse. The survey will remain open until 31st December 2024 and can be found following this link: <https://www.smartsurvey.co.uk/s/3LUS6R/SalisburySafeguardingCultureSurvey> or through the QR code provided. We are committed to maintaining a safe, respectful, and supportive environment for all.

Thank you in advance for taking the time to complete the survey, best wishes Jackie Molnar, Chapter Clerk (Chief Operating Officer)
