Intercessions

The Sick: Catherine Stewart, Ben Sampson, Reuben, Sean Hirang, David Walters, Susana, Tim Greening, Alistair Antell, Claire Hemmings.

Recently Departed: Peter Brown, Jill Makepeace-Warne, Yiqun Jin, Jean Moore.

Year's Mind: Roderick (Roger) Ephraums (2019), Edith Rose Baker (1983), Jean Hooper (2018), Brenda Ashenden (2023), Denys Roberts (1985), Dorothy Elizabeth Boden (2012), Anita Wright (2010), Aimée Luton (2014).

January Prisoner of Conscience: On 3 December 2024, Moussa Tchangari, a human rights defender and secretary general of Citizens' Alternative Spaces, was arrested in Niamey, Niger's capital. He was at home when at least three gunmen in plain clothes, who claimed to be policemen, arrested him. Moussa Tchangari's whereabouts remained unknown until 5 Dec, when he was located at the Central Service for Combatting Terrorism and Organized Transnational Crime, in Niamey. He has been charged, amongst other things, with advocating terrorism and criminal association in connection with terrorism. Niger's authorities must drop all charges and immediately release Moussa Tchangari, who is being detained solely for the peaceful exercise of his human rights.

Cathedral Notices

Healing Ministry. The ministry of healing will be offered next Sunday, The Baptism of Christ, 12 Jan at the 10:30am Choral Eucharist. If you would like to receive laying on of hands or anointing, for yourself or on behalf of someone else, please go to the St Thomas and St Edmund Chapel after you have received communion.

Peter Brown, longstanding worshipper and member of the Friends of the Cathedral sadly died on 1 December. His funeral will take place in Salisbury Crematorium (SP1 3JB) at 12noon on Wednesday 8 January.

Lent Lunches Meeting, 8 January 2025, 12noon, Chapel of St Edmund and St Thomas. Greetings faithful Lent Lunchers, both for Christmas and the New Year. Easter is late in 2025, giving us time to plan. Our meeting on 8 January is for that express purpose. If you are a regular, an occasional or potential soup and sandwich maker please do come to the meeting and help us plan for the future. Canon Kenneth will be there to help us. See you there Madeleine (madeleine16w@gmail.com)

Olivier Messiaen – La Nativité du Seigneur. A liturgical performance of Olivier Messiaen's 1935 organ cycle, La Nativité du Seigneur, will be given by John Challenger on Saturday 11 January at 1730. The full nine movements of this vivid, colourful and ground-breaking work will be played on the Father Willis organ, between readings from Scripture. These 'Organ Vespers', which will last just over an hour, are an opportunity to find space for prayer and contemplation through Messiaen's deeply devotional music.

Salisbury Symphony Orchestra conducted by David Halls are performing on Saturday 11th January, 7.30pm at St Thomas's Church. The programme includes Dvorak New World Symphony, Grieg Peer Gynt Suite no.1, Strauss Radestsky March and Strauss Emperor Waltz. Tickets priced £15 (under 18s £5), available from TicketTailor or on the door. (buytickets.at/salisburysymphonyorchestra/1429913)

Candlelight Concert, Friday 17 January 8pm. Internationally renowned tenor Ruairi Bowen and pianist William Vann perform Britten's Winter Words and other English song in the intimate setting of the North Transept by candlelight. The cycle explores themes of memory, transience, and the passage of time, often through vivid imagery of the natural world and human experience. The concert will also include works such as Finzi's setting of metaphysical poet Thomas Traherne's poetry, "Dies Natalis" in a setting for piano and tenor. Tickets £15 for adults and £7.50 for children.

Cathedral Book Group Led by Anna Macham and Tim Daykin, the Cathedral Book group meets again on Sunday 26 January from 3 until 4pm in Sarum College and we'll be taking about For Thy Great Pain Have Mercy On My Little Pain by Victoria MacKenzie. Numbers are limited to 25 and places are still available to book via the Cathedral website from Monday 21 Dec. Anna is the Precentor of Salisbury Cathedral and Tim is an Honorary Canon and a member of the Cathedral Chapter. See the What's On section of the Cathedral website to book your place: www.salisburycathedral.org.uk

Annual Christian Aid Quiz – Friday 31 January at St Mark's church 7.00 for 7.30. Join us for a night of head-scratching fun! Teams of 6, £10 a ticket which includes glass of wine & nibbles. Contact Pip Carter if you would like to either join a team or form your own team (pipcarter55@gmail.com/ 07854827233)

Brighten up your January with an evening of delicious food and music! Amici are organising a Musical Soirée on 31 January, 7:30pm in the Cathedral School. £30 per person to include a three course meal and welcome drink. Musical items provided by the professional musicians among the chorister parent community. Tickets available: amici.sumupstore.com or email amici@salisburycathedralschool.com.
